THORNTON PARK POOL GROUP USE POLICY

Shaker Recreation makes the pool available for group use on a shared-use basis during pool operating hours. Groups of people larger than 15 individuals are required to make a reservation request at least 14 business days prior to the requested date of use. Reservation requests can be made by calling a Customer Service Representative at 216-491-1295 or emailing Brandon.bowling@shakeronline.com. Group reservations are limited to Shaker residents, Shaker non-profits and other Shaker-based organizations. General admission pricing will be in effect for all group members at both the resident and non-resident rates for daily admission. All fees must be paid at or before the time of the reservation. Groups are scheduled on a first-come, first-served basis and are subject to capacity limits. The City of Shaker Heights Recreation Department reserves the right to deny a group reservation request due to staffing availability, facility capacity restrictions and for other reasons related to the safety of pool patrons. Groups must follow all pool rules and individual group participants may be ejected for violations of these rules.
